Rules Rail Values Not 100% of Full Value

Judge James Monroe
Makes Findings in 54
Cases; Prepares Orders

(Related Story on Page 4)
Madison county's opening railroads were not assessed at 100% of fair cash value during the 1957-62 tax years which were involved in the recent circuit court tax objection hearings, according to judgments to be filed at Edwardsville today.

Circuit Judge James O. Monroe, who has been hearing the tax objection litigation since last April, said he has completed decisions in the cases and that judgments are being prepared in 54 separate cases filed by 13 railroads during the six-year period.

Judge Monroe issued no
written comment in the cases,
but it was understood the railroads held that railroads were assessed at a level higher than that of local property valuations, but not more than the "fair cash value" assessments which the railroads contended had been extended against their property. The railroads insisted their property was assessed at full value, while local property was assessed at about 50%.

The rulings, it was learned,
show the excess valuation of railroad property over local property ranged from 8% to 35%. All of the railroads had maintained their excess rates from 45% to 50%.

The rulings also held that the assessment rates over the six-year period varied from 48.14% to 51.4% of full cash value.
No specific amount of refund to the railroads is fixed. The judgment refers since a recom-putation of tax rates against readjusted valuations will be necessary in each of the 54 cases.
The new computations will be based on the valuation ratio determined by the court in each case.

The judgment orders indicate that the amount of refund in most instances will be smaller than it would have been if the railroads had accepted an offer of Madison county authorities of a 34% across-the-board refund.
This offer was made before the cases were ready for trial early this year, and later withdrawn
when the railroads insisted the percentage of refund should be higher.

Assistant State's Attorney Burton C. Bernard who has been handling the tax cases for Madison county said today that he would withhold any comment on the decision until the judgment orders can be studied.

Madison Girl, 5, Dies; Hit by Car In Front of Home

A little five-year-old girl,
Sharon Welcher, became the Quad-Cities 16th traffic fatality of the year Tuesday evening
after being struck by an auto
in front of her home, 805 Bisssell street, Madison, about 4:25
p.m.

The girl, a daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. General L. Welcher, suffered head injuries. She was given emergency care at St. Elizabeth Hospital and died about 7:15 p.m. after being transferred to Cardinal Glennon Hospital, St. Louis.

Police said the child was hit by an auto driven by Martin W.
Aubuchon Jr., 20, St. Louis, who said he had stopped for a household sign at Third and Bissell streets and was going west when the child ran into the path of his auto from behind a parked car.
He said he was unable to stop in time.

Motorist Is Charged
The motorist was charged with reckless driving and was released on $1000 property bond for a hearing Aug. 28.

The girl, who was born in East St. Louis, also is survived by two sisters, Joyce Lee and Edna Martha, and a brother, James,
all at home; and grandparents,
Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Welcher of Madison, Mrs. Mary Alice Hoskins of Madison and Jimmie D.
Hill of New York City.

Services will be held at 8 p.m.
Sunday at Friendship Baptist Church, Madison, and burial will be at the National Cemetery,
Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

Mediation Service
Re-enters Dispute

The U.S. Conciliation and Mediation Service re-entered the contract dispute between company and union officials of the Union Starch & Refining Co. today. Commissioners of the Mediation Service began meeting with representatives of both the company and the union in St.
Louis at 10 a.m. in a new attempt to reach agreement on contract issues before a midnight deadline.

In similar meetings two weeks ago, the union agreed to extend its old contract until July 20,
to permit further negotiations. At that time a strike had been set for midnight Aug. 6.
Union leaders could not be reached for comment this week,
but it was understood that plans for a new strike will depend upon the outcome of today's meeting in St. Louis.

A plant spokesman said that in two weeks of almost constant meetings, including daily and weekly sessions, there has been no progress in settlement of contract issues. He said both sides are ready for trial early
this year, and later withdrawn
when the railroads insisted the percentage of refund should be
higher.

The Union Starch company's contract with the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Local 7663
expired in July.

Cache of Dynamite, 500 Blasting Caps Found by RR Crew

A crane man working on maintenance along the main line of the Nickel Plate Railroad unearthed a powerful cache of explosives Tuesday and touched off
a wide-scale investigation by railroad, county and FBI authorities.

About 500 dynamite blasting caps and two pounds of packed dynamite considered extremely dangerous by a demolition crew
from the Granite City Army Depot, were found by George Blackberry, of the NKP maintenance crew, who reported it to the county sheriff's office at 5:30
p.m.

The caps were contained in four quart jars and three gallon
cans, one of which was broken, and one of the containers of explosive had jelled and was considered to be as dangerous as nitro-glycerin.

They were buried off Highway 162 about a mile east of Stallings school and 18 feet north of the NKP main line. The demolition crew, headed by Lt. Addison B.
Henry, said that the explosives were in bad condition and that a slight jar could have set them off.

Sets Off Explosion
The demolition crew of three men moved the dynamite about 50 feet east of the location where it was found and burned it, setting off an explosion that was heard for several miles. The explosion was described as a
"nitro-glycerin" type.

The rate was cut several years ago as a result of the Butler-Hodge Act of the General Assembly which froze the county rate, and a subsequent decision
by the State Supreme Court.

John Krzyk, county auditor, warned the board members that if the rate increase fails at the polls, county services will be cut and curtailed because of lack of funds. "The 10-cent rate is an absolute necessity to meet the requirements of the people of the county," he said.

Realistic Budget
He noted the current budget of $1,626,000 is the most realistic budget we've ever had," and a tax levy was set at $725,000.
However, only $450,000 will be ruled in taxes under the current 5.66-cent rate, and part of the difference this year is provided by a $275,000 "cushion" which accumulated when the county had a 10-cent rate.

The county may get through this year without going into the "red," Krzyk added, but the county is growing, continues to grow, and the 10-cent rate will be needed for next year and following years if the required services to the public are to continue.
Under questioning, he said that county officials have been conservative in their expenditures, and that during the first seven months only 31.6% of the overall budget has been spent.

Major Outlays Due
But he said some major outlays are coming up, including the November election and seasonal expenses this fall.

Harold Landolt, board chairman, added that the new judicial system "has cost the county an enormous amount of money,"
which he said had not been anticipated.

Wilford Suesen, Fort Russell
township supervisor, allowed Krzyk to prepare a breakdown of the services which would be cut and curtailed, and receiving a reply that such a breakdown was presented to the state's municipal problems commission during a public hearing in the area.

Krzyk noted that in 1946 the county had a $450,000 budget, "but we're growing, and it takes money."

Reapportionment Planned
Briggs also informed the board that his legislative committee is to begin consideration of reapportionment of supervisors and assistants on a population basis
as required by recent decision of the U. S. Supreme Court.

$2,281,000 Levee Bonds For Treatment Plant
A public hearing has been set for 10 a.m. Sept. 15 at the East Side Levee and Sanitary District office in East St. Louis on sewage treatment facilities to serve Madison and Venice. A $2-281,000 revenue bond issue is planned, with a $643,000 federal grant providing the remainder of the $2,924,000 estimated cost.
Levee Board President Lawrence Tolar said the hearing will relate to "construction, acquisition, operation and maintenance of sewer treatment facilities and other improvements to serve the Landowner trunk sewer and the outlet sewers of the cities of Madison and Venice."

The levee district plans to construct and acquire a sewage treatment system, extend existing sewer systems and maintain and operate the river pollution abatement project for all of the cities of Venice and Madison plus sections of St. Louis township (Brooklyn area) and Canteen township (Fairmont City area),
excluding portions of the two St.
Clair county townships in the city of East St. Louis.

500 cubic feet of water and $2.70

Explain New Tax Law on Home Sale By Sr. Citizens

Under provisions of the new federal tax law, persons of 65 or older who sell their homes will be allowed a tax-free gain if the adjusted sales price is $20,000 or less.

Adjusted sales price means the sales price less the broker's commission and other expenses incurred within 90 days preceding sale and paid within 30 days of sale.

"If the sales price is in excess of $20,000, the gain is tax-exempt in the ratio that $20,000 is to such price," he explained. "Thus if the sales price is $30,000 and the gain is $12,000, the tax-free portion of the gain would be $8,000 ($20,000 to $30,000 or two-thirds of $12,000)."

Calling attention to new Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code, President Kaegel explained that the seller must have owned the home for at least five of the last eight years, and that the exemption is available only to the principal residence.

He said the exemption is available only to the principal residence of the seller. The exemption is not available to a second home or a vacation home.

Madison Buying

The city began major efforts to attract new and responsive industry to the area nearly a year ago when it employed the W. W. Pritchett Co. of St. Louis, municipal consultants, at $1000 per month plus costs.

Street Maintenance Contract
The council awarded the street maintenance contract to Blumington Fuel & Oil Co. of East St. Louis on a lump sum of $55,000. The mayor said two other firms obtained plans and specifications, including A. H. See, but did not submit bids.

The bid was close to the engineer's estimate, and a state highway department representative who attended the bid opening Monday afternoon recommended that the contract be awarded.

Work was to start yesterday to take advantage of good weather conditions. Most of the city streets will be involved, especially those affected by installation of the new storm water sewer system. The street surfaces are to be scarified, pulverized and resurfaced with asphalt or oil, the mayor said.

Coordinating Committee
The council followed the lead of the Southwest Council of Mayors in designating the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Plan Commission as its coordinating committee.

A new continuing coordinating committee is to be established, including policy, technical and advisory committees, in an effort to fulfill requirements of the 1962 federal highway act, which requires that type of organization for continued qualification for federal funds for highways.

No comment was made on a similar coordinating committee already established under the lead of the St. Louis Development Agency.

Comfort Stations
A contract was awarded to the Wolf Contracting Co. of Granite City for construction of comfort stations at the Third and both street ball diamonds on a low bid of $17,322. The Madison Rotary club is contributing $2000 of the cost.

The bids were opened last June but an award was delayed while the public goods committee inspected similar installations elsewhere. The city hoped to obtain the accommodations for $14,000 or $15,000, but the mayor noted that the Third street structure would include a concession stand.

M. H. Wolfe & Co. was the only other bidder at $21,434. H. & H. Septic Tank & Sewer Service of Granite City was given a contract to clean six manholes in West Madison for $3000. A Collinsville firm bid $3750.

Accept Litter Barrels
The council accepted a donation of 10 litter barrels from the Newport Junior Chamber of Commerce for use in West Madison. Mayor Maers said cover costing $14 to $15 each will be required before they can be placed in use.

He added that the chapter should be encouraged to continue its litter projects.

The mayor commented briefly on a recent tourism meeting that he attended and commended the success.

County Rejects Bid On Sanatorium Merger

The Madison county board of supervisors officially rejected proposals to merge its tuberculosis sanatorium operation with that of St. Clair county. The action was taken during a meeting Wednesday morning in Edwardsville.

Mrs. Templeton, 77, Dies; Ill Six Weeks

Mrs. Elizabeth Templeton, 77, of 2844 Edwards street, a 71-year resident of Granite City, died about 4:20 p.m. Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital where she had been a patient for a week. She had been ill about six weeks.

Mrs. Templeton, who was born in St. Louis, was a member of the First Church of God. Survivors include her husband, Walter; a son, William Lester Miller of Granite City; a stepson, Army Sgt. Wallace Templeton of Bermuda; four stepdaughters, Mrs. Clara Womack of Madison, Mrs. Helen Spratley of Venice, Mrs. Beulah Devine of San Lorenzo, Calif., and Mrs. Millie Owens of San Diego, Calif.; and three sisters, Mrs. Ella Pinkerton and Mrs. Carrie Herchel of Granite City and Mrs. Amanda Hill of Madison.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Mrs. Vyvienne Durbin Obtains Divorce Tuesday

Vyvienne Lucile Durbin of Granite City obtained a divorce from Charles Albert Raymond Durbin Tuesday in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville. The decree was signed by Chief Judge Joseph J. Barnhart.

They were married on Feb. 14, 1942, and separated April 14, 1962. She charged desertion and obtained custody of two minor children. A property settlement was approved by the court.

Work of the tourism committee in developing a pamphlet and promoting the Tour-City area.

Street, Sidewalk Work
The mayor reviewed pending projects as outlined by the city's consulting engineer. Included are:

Improvement of McCambridge avenue from Edwardsville road north to Elizabeth street. Included will be curbs and gutters on one side of the street only to provide for future widening, and sidewalks, in addition to an asphalt surface. Traffic will be one-way south.

Plans are to be submitted by Sept. 15 and forwarded to the state with work to start about Nov. 1. A $40,000 motor fuel tax appropriation is in the hands of the state highway division.

Sidewalks on Washington avenue. Plans and specifications are to be ready for advertisement of bids in about two weeks. The work will be financed by general funds.

Six catch basins, with plans also to be ready in about two weeks.

The program will continue along Washington avenue, with the city planning to acquire about $1500 worth. The city already has spent $15,000 on trees.

Navy Mothers Club of America, Granite City Chapter 850, to hold "sailor boy tag days" Sept. 18-19. A resolution was adopted to place a fireplug midway on Kennedy drive between Washington avenue and Greenwood street.

Mayor Maers reported he has conferred with Venice Mayor John Lee and Paul Stout, until recently the manager of the Granite City office of Southwest Bell Telephone Co., on a proposal to establish a bill collection agency in Madison for use by residents of that area.

County Rejects Bid On Sanatorium Merger

The Madison county board of supervisors officially rejected proposals to merge its tuberculosis sanatorium operation with that of St. Clair county. The action was taken during a meeting Wednesday morning in Edwardsville.

The state originally proposed that the Madison county operation be closed and that its patients be transferred to the St. Clair county sanatorium as neither are being operated at capacity. The move received the support of St. Clair county officials.

When questioned by Stephen Kennedy of Alton, Charles Hirsch of Helvetia township, chairman of the sanatorium committee, said, "I'm not inclined to favor consolidation."

Kennedy then moved that the board go on record opposing consolidation, and it was approved on a unanimous voice vote.

Seek Advisory Vote on Forced Housing

A petition bearing 545,616 signatures asking that the question of forced housing be placed on the ballot this fall as a referendum advisory to the General Assembly was filed this week with the Secretary of State's office in Springfield. The signatures include 4705 names from the Quad-Cities area gathered by the Granite City Board of Realtors. Ray Kaegel is president of the Granite City board.

The petitions were filed by officials of the Illinois Association of Real Estate Boards, Property Owners Coordinating Committee of Chicago and the Illinois Property Owners and Citizens Association who pointed out that the referendum and its result will have no effect in law, but will serve merely as an indication of public desire in the matter of forced housing.

The proposition which is asked to be placed on the ballot reads: "Shall the State legislature pass or amend statutes, so as to force owners of real property or their agents, to sell, lease or rent any real property to anyone not of their choosing and/or should the statutes permit the state or any county or municipal corporation to force owners or their agents to sell, lease or rent any real property to anyone not of their own choosing, by instituting regulatory practices on the licensing of real estate brokers, agents or salesmen, or by any other means whatsoever."

GOP Committeemen Hear Campaign Outline

Granite City Republican precinct committeemen met Monday evening at the YMCA to hear an outline of election procedures. The petition bears the greatest number of signatures, requesting a referendum, ever filed with the secretary of state.

Richard Port, president of the Illinois Association of Real Estate Boards, said the infrequently used right of advisory petition has been chosen to allow "all the people to speak their minds on this controversial question."

Charles H. Percy, Republican candidate for governor, will be the keynote speaker at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Muriel Grannemann Dies of Cancer at 43

Mrs. Muriel Grannemann, 43, of 2216 Terminal avenue, died at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was a patient for a month. She was ailing for 16 months with cancer.

Born in St. Louis, she lived in Granite City for nine years and was a member of the Civil Defense auxiliary police here.

She is survived by her husband, Lester Grannemann; two daughters, Nancy and Linda Grannemann, both at home; and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Ulrich, St. Louis.

Services will be held 2 p.m. tomorrow at a St. Louis funeral home. Burial will be at Laurel Hill Garden, St. Louis county.

Woman Arrested on Five Traffic Charges

Gladys Rose Wilson, 30, of 944 Niedringhaus avenue, was arrested by Madison police at 12:55 a.m. Wednesday on five traffic charges. Police said that while she was driving along Second street toward Madison avenue she ran stop signs at Alton avenue, Washington avenue, Ewing avenue and Madison avenue.

In addition, police charged her with driving 60 miles per hour in a 30 mph zone. She posted her driver's license, as bond pending a hearing in magistrate's court Sept. 5.

Railroads Blasted for Unending Tax Protests

Burton Bernard, assistant state's attorney who led the prosecution of Madison county's railroad tax objection cases, blasted the railroads this week for continuing to file tax objections in the face of new state legislation dealing with assessed valuation of the railroads.

He proposed to the Madison county board of supervisors meeting Wednesday morning at Edwardsville that it institute new legislation for consideration by the General Assembly to correct remaining difficulties and to provide specialized legal assistance by the state in tax objection cases.

He complained that the railroads are continuing to tie up tax money belonging to local government bodies and that the practice is spreading to other industries. He noted that the American Oil Co. of Wood River currently is filing objections on the same basis as the railroads, in equitable assessed valuations.

Financial Health at Stake

"The financial health of local governments in Madison county, and in Illinois, is at stake," he claimed.

Bernard explained the process used in the circuit court hearings which have just been completed and the new state system of evaluating railroad property.

"When the General Assembly passed equalization legislation in 1963, we believed we passed beyond the period of railroad objections," Bernard said.

In 1963, the state set the fair cash value of railroads and then cut the amount by 50%, expressly equalizing the values of railroad property to locally assessed property.

"But we still are confronted with a new string of tax objections. We have far more at stake here than just equalization."

Rails Question Method

"The fact that protests are being filed now indicates that the railroads are questioning the method in which the director of revenue is determining the valuation of railroads," even though in 1963 the director used the time-honored formula.

"I believe this must mean that the railroads are attempting to change the formula to bring the reductions in valuations about before the 50% cut is made."

A railroad now has more than 80% of its 1963 taxes tied up, Bernard noted, and it does not appear the railroad situation is going to be put to rest by the 1963 legislation.

He called for careful attention to the situation, which he said was very unsatisfactory from one particular point.

"The state's evaluation of railroads is a state function," he said. "It is quite unsatisfactory where local state's attorneys are placed in a position where they have to defend a state action."

Local officials are not structured to handle this adequately as they are limited by time, finances and other responsibilities.

Specialized Assistance

He proposed that the state provide specialized assistance from a centralized source to aid local officials in defense of state actions in railroad tax objection cases.

The railroads argued that decisions reached in litigation in other counties could be applied to Madison county, "but we had no idea what those decisions were and what basis the counties used in presenting their cases."

He asked the county to call on the General Assembly to investigate these problems and to take whatever steps may be necessary to determine what the facts are and what ought to be done.

Briggs Plans Meet

Harry Briggs, Nameoki township supervisor and chairman of the board's legislative committee, said the committee will meet with Bernard to initiate legislative action in a proper manner.

A report is to be made at the next meeting on Sept. 8.

Bernard told the board that the recent litigation was "hard fought, lengthy and expensive," and that three weeks were spent in total trial time.

He said it was the first time that a state director of revenue testified "at our instigation" and that he was candid, straightforward and helpful.

It also was the first time that a (former) state railroad assessor was called to testify, and that he also was cooperative and helpful.

In addition, an economist from Southern Illinois University assisted in compiling a history of the valuation of railroads in the state, and that Judge James O. Monroe Jr., who heard the case, "worked very hard and conscientiously on the law and the evidence."

pumping station to be built on Bremen road, Kerr Island, Venice.

The new station will pump dry-weather sewage discharged from the two cities from Bremen through a force main to the proposed treatment plant in St. Clair county.

The project includes Venice re-lift sewers which will separate sewage from dry-weather sewage flow, allowing the latter to be intercepted for treatment.

Another new sewer will intercept dry-weather sewage flow from certain Fairmont City industries. It will serve as the future outlet for areas there currently without sewerage.

Cost Breakdown

The $2,324,000 ownership consists of $1,804,200 for construction, $193,000 technical services, $309,800 legal, fiscal, financing and administrative costs, $116,000 construction contingencies, $130,000 interest during construction, $151,000 for land and improvements.

The levee district was ordered by the Illinois Sanitary Water Board on June 5, 1962, to continue the discharge of untreated domestic sewage, industrial and other wastes into the Mississippi River on or before Dec. 1, 1964.

The order related to sewage from trunk sewers, main sewers and drainage canals owned and operated by the district, unless adequate treatment works are under construction on or before said date and thereafter properly disposed of.

Procedure Explained

Tolay said the primary treatment plant located in the $2,324,000 program will treat sewage from the Lansdowne trunk sewer and other wastes from the cities of Madison and Venice so that it may be discharged to the forby of the existing flood protection pumping station known as the North Pumping Station, which is the property of the levee district.

"It will then be discharged into the river at the North Pumping Station. Solids removed from the sewage in settling basins will be dewatered on filtering equipment and treated with chemicals before being disposed of as fill on vacant land."

"As discharged from the new treatment plant, the effluent will meet the criteria prescribed by the federal and state public health authorities."

Council to Study Unequal Population in GC Wards

Granite City council members were reminded Monday night that nearly half of the city's 41,000 people live in two wards—the Sixth and Eighth, but have been reluctant to redistrict because of the possibility of losing one ward due to state population requirements.

Boundaries of the old wards—One, Two, Three, Four and Five have not been altered for decades as the city's growth to the north and east was added to the Sixth, Seventh and the new Eighth Ward.

The Illinois Legislative Council is asking for estimated population in each city ward for consideration. The agency has no power to enforce the state law.

Shed Leveled by Fire, Power Lines Damaged

Fire that started from a burning pile of rubbish destroyed a shed in the alley of 1231 Iowa street, Madison, at 12:45 p.m. Wednesday and caused damage to overhead telephone and power lines. Madison firemen said there was no loss through destruction of the shed, but that telephone and power crews worked into late evening to repair damage to lines.

Madison firemen also were called to a vacant house at 800 Madison avenue at 3:20 p.m. Tuesday where children reportedly started a fire while playing in the house. A blaze on the floor and in a wall joint was extinguished with only slight damage. Firemen said owners of the building have been notified and have been ordered to take steps to prevent youngsters from entering.

Vacations get some folks in the pink and everybody in the red.

The FBI office in Belleville is investigating as the railroad is suspected of extending a passing track, about a third of a mile east of the Smith-Douglas Co. plant.

Hearts Home Sunday; Mercer at Boosters

Both local Inter-City League men's baseball teams will see action this weekend as Marville visits Sacred Heart at Wilson Park and Mercer travels to meet the powerful Collinsville club.

Hearts Manager Dick Portell, whose club won a forfeit victory last Sunday over Alwood, will start either Jack Buente or Cecil Simpson against the Red Sox of Marville. Sacred Heart has games remaining with Collinsville, Pocatones, and Mercer (on Labor Day).

Manager Olie Miller of Mercer will give the starting nod to either Pat Harris or Terry Kofahl. Kofahl has a 5-2 record, while Harris stands at 3-2. After this weekend, Mercer will get a forfeit win from Alwood and then play Pocatones and Sacred Heart.

Miller will have to dig into his reserves and come up with a new leftfielder this Sunday, as regular Don Crabtree will be away on vacation. Crabtree is the team's second leading hitter with a .368 average. Charles "JoJo" Johnson, night and top hitter at .378.

Other Mercer players with high averages are Harry Smith, .362, Rich Breeding, .350, Dale Maxwell, .319, Terry French, .324 and Harland Seibel, .313. Reserve Robert Soehnlin has a .421 average, while hurler Harris has had 12 hits in 28 trips for a .429 mark.

Both games will begin at 2:30 p.m.

Three Playoff Games, Saturday in Madison

Three Madison Khoury league teams will see playoff action against Illinois regional opponents Saturday at Madison.

In first-place bantam playoffs, Roneycki Cardinals will face Belleville on the 13th street field at 2 p.m.

Times and locations of two midjet division contests are not certain, but both games will be played in Madison. Second-place St. Mary's Saints and fourth-place Madison Lions will face winners of Belleville-East-St. Louis semi-finals.

A fourth Madison team was eliminated from the playoffs Tuesday evening when the Sedalia Pirates, first-place midjet winners, were beaten by Bunker Hill 6-3.

Mitchell Upends 1963 Khoury League Champions

Mitchell's Senior Khoury league team cleared one of the major hurdles in its hunt for the Class A Khoury Missouri-Illinois championship last night by defeating defending champions L and P Sales 11-1 in St. Ann, Mo. The game was called after six innings because of the 10-run rule.

Mitchell got 12 hits, including three apiece by Pitcher Bill Lierman and Dave Sparks. The team's big outburst came in the sixth when it exploded for seven runs. Lierman gave up six hits and struck out six.

2 Men Hurt Tuesday In Head-On Collision

Two men were injured and another was arrested on traffic charges at 6:55 a.m. Tuesday in Venice as the result of a head-on collision of two autos at Bissell street and Refound avenue.

Robert Seiter, 32, St. Louis, driver of one of the cars, suffered a cut over his left eye and Charles Jones, 30, Lovejoy, passenger in the other car, suffered an injury to his left leg.

Police arrested William Tinsley, 25, Lovejoy, driver of the car in which Jones was riding, on a charge of driving without a driver's license. Tinsley posted a property bond for appearance at a hearing in magistrate's court Aug. 31.

The accident occurred, police said, when Seiter's car, headed east on Bissell street, was struck head-on by Tinsley's car as Tinsley made a turn from Refound street and Refound avenue.

THE MADISON COUNTY SPORTSMAN

By DON HASTINGS
County Conservation Officer

Squirrel hunting is in full swing with the coming of cooler weather. Even with the extreme drought, the bugs have been good. Hickory nut trees, chestnuts, and water seem to be the best bet as the squirrels are moving into the hickories in earnest now. However, I believe most hunters are finding that there are so many hickory nuts on all trees that the squirrels are not congregating as heavily as they do in years when only some trees have nuts on them.

In some timberlands they are still on some walnuts but seem to prefer hickory. For this reason, I don't believe that a hunter can stay with the same tree the whole morning, as most would like to do due to the dry walking. Everything goes and everything goes. Any place you step, and tennis shoes or other soft soled shoes are a necessity.

The barefoot hunters that they used to hear about would be in style now, but I suppose few of us are hardy enough for that. There seem to be a few very young squirrels. Every hunter likes young squirrels to eat, but we should draw the line some where and leave the very young until next year or later in the season.

Permitting Needed
The warden to the north of us in Macoupin county tells me that this is the best year he can remember for hunters obeying the zone line, which is the north edge of Madison and Jersey counties. I have had several complaints, however, in this county of hunters on posted lands without permission.

Again let me remind you that even though you received permission several years ago, you should ask permission every year hunting season before you hunt on any property and especially so if it is posted.

Regardless of what you hear, it stands to reason that the year would not post his land if he did want you to hunt. I do know of some farmers who when approached properly have allowed good hunters on posted ground. This, of course, does not mean all will.

The turtle dove season opened Sept. 1. Daily limit this year has been increased to 12. One of the worst offenses in dove season is the hunting of doves on electric wires, from automobiles. It would urge anyone seeing this type of violation to call me immediately, as it is dangerous for both rural residents and hunters themselves, as well as being unsportsmanlike.

Bad Shooting Hips
This would be a good time to clear up the road shooting law. It is a law commonly believed there is no distance from the road mentioned in the law. It says, "it shall be unlawful for any person to take wild animals or wild birds along, across upon or from any public right-of-way or highway in this state."

"Take" in the law is defined as pursuing, hunting or trapping or attempting to do so. This means then that a hunter standing on private property, 30 feet from a highway, could shoot game in a field in the opposite direction from the highway; however, a hunter standing 100 feet from the highway in a field and shooting at game running in a highway ditch would be in violation, as would one who shot game while standing in the highway ditch even though the game was in a field away from the highway.

A good rule of thumb is not to hunt while standing on highway property or to attempt to kill anything that is running or flying on or toward highway property.

Damage of a wire while shooting something off of it could also be cause for civil action from the company owning the wire.

Sportettes Win Monday; Start Finals

Venice Sportettes Monday night won the right to enter the championship round of the Girls' Twilight Softball League playoffs by defeating Caseyville 9-1 at Lee Park.

Tomorrow night they will play a best two-of-three series for the league title against Alton at Alton.

Bonnie Huber pitched three hit balls against Caseyville, giving up an unearned run only after two were out in the final inning. The Sportettes piled up eight runs in the fourth inning when Janet Fritz, Barbara Glatteiter, and Diane Catter, each hit home runs.

Everyone in the Venice lineup had safety in the game, with Misses Catter, Glatteiter, and Mickey Rayfield each getting a pair of hits. Shortstop Karen Chase was the defensive stand-out of the game, coming up with ten difficult plays while holding runners on base.

Managed by Tom Chase and "Pop" Mey, the Sportettes now sport a 25-4 record. Bonnie Huber will probably get the starting nod tomorrow night when they reach the finals by Collinsville 3-2 last night.

New GC Hunting Club Will Open Shortly

The game preserve will be open only to the club's 100 members, while the recreational area, including a clubhouse now under construction, will be open to guests.

Deer Quotas Filled in Many Counties; State to Open 12 Conservation Areas

Deer hunting permits are no longer available in the Southern Illinois counties of Clinton, Gallatin, Hamilton, Hardin, Jefferson, Johnson, Massac, Monroe, Pope, Saline, Union and Williamson.

William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, also announced quotas have been filled in Central Illinois counties of Fulton, Mason and Peoria and Northern Illinois counties Carroll, DeWitt, McHenry, Ogle, Stephenson and Whiteside.

A heavy volume of applications will delay issuance of deer permits, Lodge said. Unsuccessful applications, however, are being returned immediately as hunters may re-apply in counties where quotas have not been reached.

Deer season dates in Southern and Central Illinois are Nov. 20-21-22 and Dec. 4-5-6. Dates in Northern Illinois are Nov. 20-21-22-23.

It was also announced that hunting of pheasant, squirrels, doves, quail and rabbits will be allowed on 12 conservation areas during the 1964 seasons.

These areas are: Hamilton county, seven miles east of McLeansboro; Lake Argyle State Park, north of Colchester in McDonough county; Lake Ramsey State Park, north of Ramsey in Fayette county; Randolph county, four miles north and one mile east of Chester; Red Hills State Park, east of Lawrenceville in Lawrence county; Saline county, two miles south and eight miles east of Harrisburg; Stephen A. County Postpones Paving Maryville Rd. Until 1966

The county's motor fuel tax project for widening and paving Maryville road from Pontoon road north to new Interstate Route 270 west of Mitchell is being delayed until 1966, the Granite City council was advised Monday night.

G. H. Sternberg, chairman of the city's Street Committee, reported he had talked to county highway officials who laid the blame on changes contemplated by the state highway department for the intersection and a railroad grade crossing at Maryville road and old Route 3 south of Mitchell.

The improvement had been slated for 1965, and the city has been preparing for the widening and paving of Maryville road inside the city limits. Also planned for the future is a connecting-extension south of Pontoon road.

Alderman Ford Johnson had requested a schedule on the improvement. He pointed out the city is improving Woodlawn avenue and is installing drainage lines under the motor fuel tax project.

He asked that the county be

Recommendation Criticized

Council Delays Purchase Of New Road Grader

A recommendation by the Street Committee for purchase of a $20,000 street grader was rejected by Granite City council members who instructed the committee to present a recommendation for a less expensive model.

The city had received bids ranging from $16,880 to $20,000 for a grader, and the committee was criticized for not recommending the lowest figure.

G. H. Sternberg, chairman of the committee, stated in presenting the committee's recommendation that the superintendent of streets had favored the most expensive model and that interviews were made with several out-of-town contractors who said they would consider only the purchase of the "superior" model.

The chairman explained that only generalized specifications could be listed in a bid call or otherwise only one manufacturer could qualify. He added that the Fabrick Tractor Co., which had submitted the $20,273 bid had offered to cancel its $1000-month rental fee for a grader being used by the city, reducing the amount to $19,273. Both of the city's graders are out-of-service.

$2800 Differential Council members pointed out the price differential still would be over $2800, and that the money could be used for other equipment or purchases.

The bid figures were $16,880 from O. B. Avery Co., $17,630 from Bi-State Machinery Co., $17,700 from Missouri-Illinois Tractor and $20,273 from Fabrick Co.

A round-robin debate on the merits of accepting low bids was held. The outcome was a 10-0 vote against accepting the highest bid. It came after Street Supt. Warfield said he would be satisfied with the $16,880 model.

Voting for the committee recommendation were Rutledge, Whitmer, Sternberg and Thompson. Against it were Skubish, Basarich, Mrs. Betine, Bartolucci, Johnson, Bergfield, Boyd, Dallas, Pence and Morrien.

Another recommendation from the committee is expected next week.

In the debate, Sternberg was criticized for the recommendation in view of his stand for seeking bids on all materials for the street department and for bidding for sale of the sewage treatment revenue bonds.

Whitmer pointed out the city had received bids on compact automobiles much cheaper than standard-size cars for police work and he had not accepted the lower bids. He added that the committee believed the higher-priced grader would be cheaper in the long run for the city's operation.

New investigation equipment which makes the Madison county sheriff's office the "best equipped department" in the immediate area has been delivered to the sheriff's office in Edwardsville.

Chief Investigator Capt. Louis Bowman said this week that "never before in the history of the sheriff's office has this equipment been available."

The equipment is portable and can be carried in a sheriff's car that will be specially equipped to make on-the-spot investigations. The equipment is contained in three black carrying cases, one of which contains equipment for making paraffin tests which can show whether or not a person has recently fired a gun.

The second case contains an evidence casing kit to be used in making casts of footprints or other items, and the third contains finger print equipment.

Park Spokesman Asked To Address Wilshire Group

Randall Robertson, Granite City park district attorney, has accepted an invitation to address a Wilshire Manor Civic and Improvement Association general membership meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 15 at Peace United Lutheran Church on Stratford lane.

The Wilshire subdivision in Nameoki township is located near the new 20-acre park established by the park district, and some of the residents have proposed that the area be accepted as a part of the district.

Through park district annexation, Wilshire residents could qualify to participate in the tentative park recreational program; non-resident recreation fees are greater than the amount of taxes collectible on the district's 11.3-cent rate, which represents about 3½ of the total tax rate.

Includes Nameoki Township The park district boundaries already include such parts of Nameoki township as some of the homes adjacent to Wilshire, among them those on the south side of Stratford lane. The civic and improvement association includes nearby residents whose property is in the park district.

Robertson has been asked to explain park annexation procedures and answer other questions. The proposal does not involve such taxing bodies as townships, cities, levee districts, etc.; there would be no change in their boundaries.

There also is no connection with the Granite City school district, although the park and school systems have interrelated in such matters as exchanging sites.

In an exchange currently in process, part of the new park is being conveyed to the school district for construction of a grade school authorized by voters May 23; the school will be located immediately south of Peace United Lutheran Church.

Like the school district, the park district is a separate entity which consists both incorporated and unincorporated areas.

State's Help Sought

Racers Speed on Schedule Just Outside City Limits

Cooperation of the state is being sought by Granite City council members to halt racing and speeding on a section of four-lane West Pontoon road that is beyond city jurisdiction.

Aldermen pointed out the racers operate vehicles with loud motors and screech their tires when they start, disturbing the neighborhood. It was noted the racing takes place between midnight and 2 a.m. and appears to be pre-arranged.

Ford Johnson said four persons were arrested recently by city police who caught them speeding within the city limits, but it has failed to halt the racing.

"The north side of the pavement is outside the city limits," he pointed out.

Seek 25 MPH Limit

He and Alderman Thompson requested the speed limit be lowered from the presently posted 45 mph to 25 or 30 mph. Police Chief Raymond Willard said he was certain the state would comply with the city's request.

Thompson said that after recent complaints, vandals buried a stone at the home of one resident along the speedway.

Another speeding complaint was registered by Alderman Skubish, who requested stop signs be placed at either end of Braden avenue at West Pontoon road and at Oakland avenue to slow motorists.

Parking Restrictions

A request was submitted for a two-hour parking zone on the east side of the 1400 block of State street and a no-parking zone on the west side. The request was presented by Alderman Dallas, and Police Chief Willard stressed that parking of vehicles along the west side of the street is extremely dangerous because of the curve at 16th street.

Another two-hour zone was requested by Alderman Bettine for a portion of 27th street near Iowa street. She also asked that a yield sign on 24th street at State street be replaced with a stop sign.

A request for stop signs on Edgewood drive at Willow avenue was made by Skubish.

Training Period Begins

Dannie L. Sorenson, 17, son of Mrs. Eileen Sorenson of 1736 Madison avenue, has begun basic training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Educational Benefits Extended by Congress

A bill approved by Congress recently is of great importance to disabled veterans in that it extends the Junior GI Bill (War Orphans Educational Assistance act), according to Joseph D. Wetton, service-officer of the Illinois Veterans commission with offices in the City hall in Granite City.

Wetton said the bill provides $110 per month for 36 months for children 18 to 23 years of age while attending college or vocational school, and that it provides special training for handicapped children needing restorative training.

Prior to passage of the new measure, the Federal Education Program applied only to children of certain deceased veterans. Its benefits now are open to children of veterans who were totally and permanently disabled during a war period or induction period.

Wetton advised that disabled veterans who feel that their children qualify for this educational training should get in touch with his office for additional information.

Two GC Youth Complete Training at Great Lakes

Jerry L. Williams, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Williams of 2911 Myrtle avenue, and James L. Greenlee of 1213 West Pontoon road, have begun basic training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. The nine-week training includes naval orientation, history and organization, seamanship, ordnance and gunnery, military drill, first aid and survival.

Begin Basic Training

Harry E. Snell, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Snell of 2014 McCasland avenue, Madison, has begun basic training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Mothers who assisted were Mrs. Thomas Watkins and Mrs. John Arbogast.

Older Persons with Jobs Can Seek Social Security

"Most of us can't afford to throw money away," Ralph Brasher, district manager for the Social Security Administration said today. "Yet every year many people do just that."

Brasher said he was talking about the people who are 65 years of age or older and have not yet applied for their social security benefits.

He emphasized that a person doesn't have to retire completely to draw social security benefits because a recent change in the law makes it possible for many more older people to receive some benefits even though they are continuing to work.

"If you are between 65 and 72 and still working, you may be eligible right now for some social security benefits. A person who is 72 or older can draw his full monthly benefits, no matter how much he earns during the year."

He gave the following example about a fictitious person named Raymond Jones, who is a painter, age 65 and recently applied for his social security benefits.

"Mr. Jones' monthly benefit is $70 a month—$840 for the year. If Mr. Jones continues to work, he can earn as much as $1200 and still receive all of his monthly benefits."

Township Expenses Of $4798 Approved

High Court May Hear Dram Shop Case Appeal

(Special From Springfield)

The Illinois Supreme court has been asked to review a Madison county circuit court decision involving a case in which the plaintiffs claim the state dram shop act includes an employer and employees under its provisions. The suit asks $128,000 damages as the result of an accident following an employees' picnic.

Plaintiffs are Floyd Miller, his wife and Mrs. Doris Mouser and her two minor children. The suit was filed against the Owens-Illinois Glass Co. of Madison and nine officers and employees of the Madisonian Association, an employees welfare group.

The Millers and the Mousers were riding in Miller's auto when it was allegedly driven by Gerald E. Leibold collided with the Miller car and caused injuries to all five occupants. The accident occurred Sept. 9, 1961, on old Route 67a about one mile north of Granite City.

The suit alleged that Leibold was intoxicated from liquor served at the employees' picnic held on property said to have been owned by the glass company. The trial court denied a motion to strike company-employed affidavits claiming they were outside the scope of the dram shop act. The suit seeks to interpret provisions of the dram shop act to include anyone who gives another a drink of intoxicating liquor. The case was taken to the high court from the Fifth Appellate court at Mount Vernon which has affirmed the Madison county circuit court decision.

Youth Fellowship Leaves Today For World Conclave

(Special from Mexico)

Granite City's Latin American ensemble is winding up its whirlwind tour of Mexico this week still "leaving them dead" without the services of one of its members.

Eugene Bryant, a trumpet artist, was left behind at Salina-manca where he underwent an appendectomy last Sunday night and there he will be a patient for eight days before returning home.

He had two abdominal attacks, the last at Tlapualco, from where the rest of the entourage proceeded on their special train which took the other 21 musicians and their chaperones to Aguascalientes on Monday, Zacatecas on Tuesday, Durango yesterday and Toluca today.

Tomorrow the group will perform at Saltillo before heading for the border on Saturday night. Arrival in Granite City is scheduled for Monday.

Director Robert D. Todoroff's charges were received by a student reception committee and the president of the Rotary club at Aguascalientes and were taken by bus to a hotel across the street from a park where they played to an audience of about 3000 persons. They then were greeted by the mayor of the city.

Added to their many experiences was a tour of vineyards at noon Monday at San Marcos, where the owner prepared a huge banquet served in an elegant room. Eugene Alassi, serving as public relations director, said the food was some of the best they have received in Mexico.

The tour of the vineyards was by auto, and stops were made to sample not only grapes, but fresh fruit plucked from quince trees. The trees protect the vines during storms. The fruit generally is canned before shipment to hotel dining rooms. Each took some grapes for a later snack at the hotel.

Another visit to a country club helped fill out the time. Scheduling has been so tight that they rarely have an opportunity to send a picture post card home. Alassi complained, before quickly completing his telephone call by stating that "I've got to go now. We're leaving for Zaca-tecas."

Southwestern Illinois University during the last school year had a first-time faculty and administrative staff of 279, plus another 127 persons serving on a part-time basis. In addition, there were 206 non-academic employees.

Parents Day Set Sept. 20 At New SWIU Campus Site

A hand concert and reception assistant professor in the fine arts division, the new students will be viewing a skit program entitled "The Longest Day" at the campus outdoor amphitheater. Robert Hawkins, associate professor in the fine arts division, wrote the skits which deal with the rigors and rituals of the new registration. Parents and students will take part in the skits and rituals of the new registration. At 4:30 p.m. an informal reception is scheduled to acquaint the campus visitors with members of the SWIU faculty. New students will spend the following two days in orientation sessions prior to the start of fall term classes on Sept. 23.

Parochial Schools to Open Term on Sept. 1

Quad-City parochial schools will open their 1964-65 year on Sept. 1 in accordance with regulations of the Springfield diocese.

All of the schools will hold half-day sessions on the first day, while St. Elizabeth's school will operate on a half-day basis for the first week.

St. Joseph's and Sacred Heart schools will move into a full-day schedule as soon as weather permits, while St. Margaret Mary's, contact the area Coast Guard school to move into a full-day schedule as soon as weather permits.

All of the parochial schools will observe the Labor Day holiday on opening day.

Few Vacancies Remain In Coast Guard School

A few vacancies remain in the U.S. Coast Guard officer candidate school to convene on Sept. 13, it was announced. College graduates between 21 and 28 years old who meet rigid mental and physical requirements can become commissioned officers in 17 weeks.

Qualified applicants are enlisted in the Coast Guard and serve with a guarantee that they will be admitted to officer candidate school. Interested college graduates or seniors should write St. Margaret Mary's, contact the area Coast Guard school to move into a full-day schedule as soon as weather permits.

An information booklet and application forms for entering the academy may be obtained by writing the commandant (PTP-2), U.S. Coast Guard, Washington, D.C.

Four GC Girls Attend Classical League Meet

Four Granite City high school girls attended the National Junior Classical League convention last week at the University of Illinois.

They are Gale Alford and Karen Thomas, who will be seniors, and Debbie Bush and Mary Hagler, who will be juniors. They were accompanied by Miss Mildred Ifrig, Latin teacher. About 2200 persons attended the convention.

The students attended workshops on methods to improve their Latin clubs and club activities. They participated in scholastic contests, and the convention was climaxed by a Roman afternoon complete with Olympic games.

A lecture on the use of manuscripts as a source of literature was presented by Chauncey Finch, chairman of the department of classical languages at St. Louis University. Officers were elected for the next year, and the University of Southern California was selected as the site for the 1965 convention.

While away the girls toured Springfield, including Lincoln monuments.

The education division of Southwestern Illinois University prepares training for all grades from kindergarten through high school and provides basic training in the fields of psychology and guidance. Committed to giving professional training to teachers, supervisors, administrators and specialists, it includes provisional work in several specialties in school administration and supervision.

Industrial Development Procedures Discussed

A meeting was held at the Rose Bowl restaurant Tuesday evening at the request of the Edwardsville Chamber of Commerce to discuss possible participation by the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce and Collinsville Chamber of Commerce in an industrial development corporation recently organized by Edwardsville and later joined by the Wood River township Chamber.

The Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce was represented by C. E. Matinas, vice-president, in the absence of President Chester L. Baker, and the following members of the Industrial Development Committee: H. R. Fischer, H. D. Karandjett and E. G. Schmitt.

A lengthy discussion was held on matters pertaining to industrial development in the Illinois Metropolitan Area. It was the opinion of the group that meetings of this type are of value, since they indicate the benefits which can be obtained through working more closely together.

The local committee took the proposal under advisement and will make a report at the next meeting of the Chamber board of directors.

$100,000 Injury Suit

A $100,000 injury suit has been filed in Madison county circuit court for Albert Lee Wells of Granite City against the C&MCO railroad.

The complaint alleges that Wells, employed as a pipefitter for the railroad, suffered severe and permanent injuries in a fall while he and another employee were in the railroad's St. Louis yards and were affixing a propane gas tank to a rail car for heating and air conditioning purposes. It charges negligence on the part of the railroad for failure to provide proper and safe facilities and conditions for its employees. A jury trial is asked.

Nameoki Approves New Township Health Statute

The Nameoki board of health Monday night approved a comprehensive health ordinance for the township during the regular meeting of town board of auditors. The town board also agreed upon a contract for the coming sewer bond issue.

The new statute defines health nuisances in 12 categories ranging from bone and glue factories to weeds and septic tanks. It provides penalties of up to $500 in fines and six months in jail. Inspection privilege is contained in the statute.

Conditions termed health nuisances by the new ordinance include bone, fat and glue factories; soap and candle factories; unclean drains and garbage containers; water collected in basements; ponds or pools of impure water; discharge of refuse; impure wells and cisterns; rubbish and debris; vegetable waste and litter; offensive manufacturing odors; and overflowing cesspools and septic tanks.

The ordinance requires annual cleaning and pumping of cesspools and septic tanks, as well as times when contents overflow. The board of health is composed of Harry A. Briggs, township supervisor, John Karlebach, jr., clerk, and Joseph J. Cohan, tax assessor.

In other business the township board authorized Briggs to sign a contract with the Chicago firm of Nongard, Showers and Murray as town consultants. Nameoki township will issue revenue bonds for the construction of three sewer plants. The Chicago company is bond consultant also for Granite City. John Githoft has been hired by the board as bond attorney. Githoft also is city attorney for Madison and a former city attorney for Granite City. Briggs announced that the township has received $451 in insurance for repairs to the roof of the town hall, damaged during a spring hail storm. The next meeting of the board will be Sept. 1, when the semi-annual township reports are due.

THE WORLD'S FINEST USED CARS ARE BUILT BY CADILLAC.

To prove our point, we offer as evidence the three Cadillacs shown above.

From top to bottom in our illustration are a 1960 Sedan de Ville, a 1962 Coupe de Ville and a 1963 Sixty Special. Each is unmistakably Cadillac. Each, regardless of vintage, will have special appeal to the man who desires the comfort, convenience and pride of ownership that only Cadillac can offer.

That's why thousands of wise car buyers favor a previously owned Cadillac over new cars of other makes. First of all, they realize that Cadillac engineering is so far advanced that "newness" becomes a relative term. In fact, there are features found on late model MORE TEMPTING THAN EVER—AND JUST WAIT TIL YOU DRIVE IT—SEE YOUR AUTHORIZED CADILLAC DEALER

Cadillacs that are only now being offered on other cars. This is a major reason why a Cadillac retains its value through the years, from buyer to buyer.

Another thing to consider. Cadillac owners lavish the most meticulous care on the cars they are so proud to own. The "car of cars" almost always receives regular maintenance and servicing by highly skilled and carefully trained mechanics.

Your authorized Cadillac dealer's selection of one-owner models has never before been so appealing. And he can probably match one of these fine cars to your budget. Who knows? Your used Cadillac could possibly be the "newest" car you've ever owned!

Union men of the Tri-Cities are making big preparations for the fourteenth annual celebration of Labor Day Monday, Sept. 7, and the prospects are that Granite City, Madison and Venice will participate in one of the biggest celebrations in the history of organized labor here. The celebration is under the auspices of the Tri-City Central Trades Council.

The police board of Granite City was called upon Tuesday evening to make a comparison between the qualities of a common cur, a dog and a bulldog, and decided in favor of "just plain dog."

The trouble arose when a man said his bulldog had more sense than a certain patrolman and his canine friend put together.

At Least 45% Of Local High School Graduates Continuing Their Education

Transcripts requested by Quad-City high school graduates indicate that the number planning to enroll in colleges and nursing schools this fall continues to rise in comparison with past years. A Press-Record Youth Focus tabulation shows 345 or 45% of the 768 students electing to continue their education beyond the high school level.

The listing includes 46% of the 609 Granite City graduates, 50% of the 1000 members of the Madison high school class of '64, 40% of the 32 in the Venice high school class and at least 7% of the 27 Lincoln graduates. Also going on to universities and schools of nursing are 11 Quad-City girls who graduated from St. Teresa's Academy this spring and nine local boys who are graduates of Assumption high school.

The trend is a reflection of the times but also reveals local students' and parents' awareness that a college education is of increasing importance in an era of mushrooming technology and complexity.

Horseshoe Lake Park Would Be Ideally Located To Serve SWIU

The university survey of Horseshoe Lake as a recreation center is a logical step, since a state park there would serve students of the SWIU. Quad-City-Edwardsville campus as well as other residents of the Illinois Metropolitan Area.

As pointed out by Prof. William Freeberg, chairman of the Recreation and Outdoor Education Department, Horseshoe Lake is "one of the largest natural bodies of water in the state and is located in the center of a heavily-populated area that is expanding rapidly"; it is "one of the few gems left in the state that has great possibilities for recreation and conservation development."

The survey report to be completed this fall will be of great interest to local proponents of the park and to the state and federal agencies whose decisions will help determine whether and how soon it can be created.

Maybe He Should Have Been Awarded A Medal

Little noticed in the furor surrounding a Long Island postman who "delivered" two tons of letters to his garage—most of it junk mail—is the absence of complaints from home owners.

Because the postman department reports that out of 450 families along his route, not one asked during a three-year period why there were more circulars clogging their mailboxes. The now-retired mailman is safely past the time when he could be prosecuted for his unauthorized and unauthorized "screening service."

While the few first-class letters he stored away are being delivered, the rest will be discarded by the government. Except for these letters, the former postman's procedure—which should not be confused with the new "zip code"—may strike a sympathetic note with many of his patrons. Perhaps some of them or a business firm will hire him to do what he does so well—weed out unsolicited and unwanted mail.

Women, it is said, like a strong, silent man—because they think he is listening to them.

The FORM

Name and address must accompany each letter but will not be revealed if anonymity is requested. Communications of less than 250 words will be given preference. All are subject to condensation and grammatical changes. Letters with abusive statements or leading to good law or fair play will be rejected or edited.

PLANT TRAFFIC LIGHT DESCRIBED AS UNNEEDED
To the Editor:
Well, I see it's finally happened. Granite City Steel has gotten the stoplights which they wanted so badly for a few grown men to cross in the middle of 20th street.

Who authorized these lights and who put them up? Every time I see them, mine was the only car within three blocks in either direction and one man put the light on so he could cross the street. Further down the street, a group of small children crossed the street and waited for me to go by.

Why is it these children can cross the street at the intersection and wait for cars to go by, when the employees of Granite City Steel need a red light to cross the street? They are supposed to be grown men.

If they're able to work, it seems they should be able to make their way to a corner and wait for a red light to cross the street. They are supposed to be grown men.

Initial Levy By Village Spotlights Small Tax Base

The fact that each penny of tax rate provides less than $67 in annual property tax revenue graphically shows why the new village of Pontoon Beach has a financial problem. The additional fact that this was brought out even before the village was incorporated does not provide a remedy.

It is ironic that deliberations over a $5502 budget and $3247 tax levy—the first at Pontoon Beach—drew an interested audience of 33 people, most discussion of the Granite City school district's $7,137,926 budget and $4,300,242 levy attracted only one spectator. The school district includes Granite City, Pontoon Beach, part of Madison and parts of Nameook, Chouteau and Venice townships.

Village residents, of course, have more at stake than indicated by the 1-to-1000 ratio between their municipal and school spending. As the principal bearers of taxes in their area, they will be paying a tax bill which includes about an 8 1/2% portion for the village and 62 1/2% for schools. Remaining taxes will go to the township, 13%, levee district, 11 1/2%, and county, 4 1/2%.

Active participation in civic matters by such a large group of citizens is a healthy situation, no matter what prompts it. Such widespread interest bodes well toward handling of other Pontoon Beach issues that arise in the future.

Comply With Ban On Open Dumps Even If There Is No State Enforcement

It is unfortunate that a 1963 state law banning open disposal areas apparently lacks enforcement "teeth," in the opinion of some officials.

With the document specifying an effective date of Aug. 26, 1963, there had been hope that smoke and fumes from dumps south of Madison would be eliminated this summer. Now this appears doubtful.

Early due to the high cost of municipal incinerators, there has been little action to eliminate the dump nuisance. While the law prohibits open dumping or burning of garbage, interpretations indicate that garbage can be dumped and then covered with earth and that other refuse can still be dumped or burned.

The new law makes no provision for enforcement, which presumably would have to be carried out at the local level. A penalty of up to $2000 a day is listed, but there are no precise definitions relating to sanitary landfills and incinerators.

Since the Illinois Public Health Department can and does recommend detailed standards to be followed in such matters, there should be some efforts by all to comply, regardless of any deficiencies in the state's enforcement authority. If this does not prove effective, the General Assembly convening in January undoubtedly will consider strengthening the existing statute.

A man hopes that his lean years are past; a woman, that hers are ahead.

Vital Role For Community Newspapers Throughout World

Receipt of our yearly membership card from the International Conference of Weekly Newspaper Editors prompts renewed realization that community newspapers like the Press-Record are providing grassroots news and comment for millions of people in many parts of the world.

Because of the importance of newspapers only when citizens are kept informed, such newspapers not only serve their particular areas but, collectively, help shape world conditions.

Objectives of ICWNE members are to "encourage the development of wise and independent editorial comment and leadership in weekly newspapers throughout the world; facilitate the exchange of ideas and viewpoints of weekly newspaper editors in order that they and their readers may become better informed; help in the development of the weekly newspaper press as an instrument of mutual understanding and world peace; and foster freedom of the press in all nations."

The first goal is one of the most important, since some countries even outside the Iron Curtain still ban free flow of information. Not coincidentally, freedom does not flourish in those nations.

Bid Accepted

State approval of Olive-Christ street motor fuel tax project and another for sections of Nevada avenue and West 23rd street were received and placed on file.

The city also was notified by the state that its motor fuel tax engineering contracts with Research, Planning & Design Associates, St. Louis firm, has been approved by the state. The city's chief engineer, J. H. Smith, said that the firm is not expected to start work until the end of the month.

Referring to the Street Committee's plan to install sidewalks in the vicinity of schools where there are no paved walkways, Under consideration are new sidewalks in front of several schools. The city is planning to install sidewalks in the vicinity of schools where there are no paved walkways.

Freedom's Meaning

Democratic freedom's basic human rights evolved out of centuries of bitter struggle by many brave and determined men against government greed, corruption, tyranny, injustice and oppression.

Dr. SIMS says...
SAFEGUARD YOUR HEALTH
A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

TETANUS DEADLY, MOST PEOPLE UNPROTECTED
Tetanus commonly called lockjaw—ranks as one of the deadliest diseases known to medicine.

Because three out of every four adult Americans are not adequately protected, more than 50% of those who develop tetanus die.

The popular opinion that tetanus can result only from a deep, serious wound or from "stepping on a rusty nail" is a fallacy. Tetanus can result from the slightest cut, scratch, burn or even insect bite.

The inherent danger is that the tetanus spores are found all over the soil, in the water, on domestic animals and plants—and are difficult to kill with ordinary sterilizing methods.

The disease can be contracted anytime, but is increased by activities during the summer, making it an especially dangerous hazard.

Under conditions ideal for contamination, the hardy tetanus-producing spores can lodge in a wound and produce endotoxins which affect the motor nerves at the site of infection with resultant muscle spasms. The clostridium tetani is a micro-rod-shaped organism that thrives in the absence of oxygen.

Early Symptoms
The symptoms usually appear within five to 14 days and during this "incubation" period of the disease, the unsuspecting victim enjoys apparent good health.

After the incubation period, the more serious the illness is likely to be. Early symptoms usually include restlessness, irritability and muscular stiffness of the jaw, neck or limbs.

After this point, the patient gives the appearance of being bent backward, bow-shaped, or in a rigid, contracted position caused by spasm of the muscles of respiration.

No drug has been found effective in treating tetanus once it has reached the nervous system. But if the patient is capable of recovery, large doses of antitoxin will neutralize the toxins.

Protection against tetanus is by immunization. Two methods are available: active and passive. Active tetanus immunization is accomplished with tetanus toxoid.

The first in a series of three injections is usually given within one and a-half and two months after birth. The second injection generally follows a month later, and the third within six months to a year. However, booster injections must be given every five years to be immunized.

Active immunization with tetanus toxoid is safely administered and is felt to be 100% effective.

Serum Reaction
For those injured persons who are not protected by tetanus toxoid, passive immunization with antitoxin is indicated. However, many persons are allergic to the horse serum from which the antitoxin is prepared, and serious complications can result.

The high death rate from the disease, the widespread distribution of the causative organism in our environment, plus the danger of "serum reaction" to the antitoxin produced from horse serum are sufficient reason for 100% immunization of the entire population.

If you have not been actively immunized, do so without delay. Before you are immunized, be sure to tell your doctor of any past or present allergic reactions. He will skin test you regardless if tetanus antitoxin is indicated, and he will give you human antitoxin if necessary.

After you have been actively immunized, be sure to get a booster dose at least every fifth year. If no accident occurs in your life, Get the booster after each injury to keep your protection at the highest level.

Bywater and children, Bill, Kelly and Jamie, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Beeler and children, Diane, and Misses Tina and Sue Bywater.

The party was held at the Ford home, 5112 Rapp road. Others present were his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William C. $1,134,635 Tax Levy for GC Is Approved; $41,950 Boost

A tax levy of $1,134,635 was approved Monday night by Granite City council members. The levy for next year's tax collection is $41,950 higher than last year's levy which now is being collected. Only a slight increase—and possibly no increase—in the city's tax rate is anticipated next year.

Comptroller John Doher told the council the status of the tax rate would depend on the city's new assessed valuation. The city tax rate on which the current tax collection is based is 74.9 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

And Mrs. Harold Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gasaway, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Trachler, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Anderson and son, James, Virgil Layton and Mary Smith.

Betty Graham, who has been ill for the past week, is under a doctor's care. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robinson were visited over the weekend by Mrs. Nellie Holtman and niece, Eileen, and Sharon Koehne. The nieces remained this week for a further visit.

Jaycees Plan Model Plane, Bike Events

The Granite City Junior Chamber of Commerce made plans for a model airplane contest at 10 a.m. Aug. 30 on the Coolidge junior high school grounds. The Grit Grinders model airplane club will serve as co-sponsors.

Plans also were made for a bicycle rodeo on Sept. 19 at the Bellefonte Village shopping center in cooperation with the Shopping Center Association.

Jaycee-of-the-month honors for July were shared by James Spinks for his work on the Miss Granite City contest and by Boyd Presley for his work on the Miss Majorette of Illinois contest.

The recent Jaycee homecoming was discussed. Two new members were introduced. They are Fred Barr and Mike Day.

A 12-to-2 vote, with Aldermen Johnson and Sternberg dissenting. The adoption was voted by Rutledge, Skubish, Whitmer, Basarich, Mrs. Betnee, Barto, Beyer, Boyd, Dallas, Pence, Moerlein and Thompson. Those absent were Aldermen Neen and Partney.

Mayor Davis also was absent. Alderman Rutledge was chosen to preside after Moerlein first explaining he might have to leave for work before the session ended.

GC Council to Convention At Chicago Next Month

Granite City council members, mayor and superintendent of streets were authorized Monday night to go conventioning in Chicago next month at the city's expense.

No limit was placed on the number of aldermen which can attend the four-day Illinois Municipal League Sept. 26-29 in Chicago. Each one will be allowed $175 for expenses.

LADONNA STARK is a whiz in orlon. What makes a cute sweater fresh, fit, fun and bounce-back as girls? Libson and orlon acrylic, that's what. Ladonna's sweater is fashioned in the turtle neck collar and long sleeves. Her vest and skirt set of plaid wool and nylon are school fashions with extra-curricular airs. A bright costume for class and after school activities. A sleeveless vest matches a permanent box-pleated skirt. It's featured at the Libson Shop.

FALL WEAR FACTS FOR THE BOYS

Beefy! Brawny! Bold! Brazen and bright! That's the story in boys' wear this coming fall.

The profile is still to slender. Beside the popular Country Look, new added interest is added by the Urban Look. There's still "ivy," continental and as always, some novelties.

Everything's going to Blazers. On seeing that a blazer is a year-round fashion must, manufacturers are going into full-scale production. Flannel has always been the leading fabric; hop-sacking will be given the emphasis in '64. Navy is the leader in colors, with camel, red, burgundy, green rounding out the pic. Look for light blue and gray to make a strong comeback.

Suits will go to 2-button and in some cases 1-button. There are two main looks for fall: the country-style, and the sleek, smooth city style. The former will be found in herringbone and feathery mixtures plus pin-wale corduroy, the latter to iridescent and subtle plaids. 1- and 2-button model suits will usually carry continental trousers. Natural-shoulder suits will be in 1-, 2- and 3-button models. Patch and flap pockets are still important. Look for black to be the outstanding color in this fall's suit parade. But, iridescent will come in with their fair share as they did last fall.

Sportcoats will go to 3-button styling. They will have a pronounced beefy, country-look about them. Woolen fabrics, with a resurgence of wide-wale corduroy will enrich the fall scene. Look for some to feature match-the-lining accents.

PARENTS—NOTE!

Tetanus is on the increase in some parts of the country... many people are failing, after their initial shot... to get a booster. These should be taken every three to five years. Be sure your child starts to school having had this shot as well as immunization against smallpox, diphtheria, whooping cough, and polio.

Get Eyes Ready For Schooltime

About four-million young Americans will be entering school for the first time this year. The child with impaired vision may have learning difficulties as a result of classroom failures.

The Better Vision Institute has recommended a professional eye examination for all pre-school children, even as young as three. And the BVI points out that a defect in vision which could have been easily remedied in an early test may develop into a serious problem handicapping for years.

By observing the child's eyes, noting suspicious things in his behavior and watching his developmental activities closely, an alert parent may be able to detect eye trouble that can be corrected long before the child must learn to read.

Signs of trouble that merit further investigation include red, encrusted or swollen eyelids with recurring sties; inflamed and watery eyes.

Frowning and squinting when looking at distant objects, should be taken by parents as trouble signs.

School Savings Teach Thrift

Each year, at least 5,654,220 Americans place a total of over $209,206,140 in savings accounts. Although the figures in themselves are not particularly news worthy, what is of interest is the fact that these depositors are all students of public and parochial schools. They are part of the school savings banking programs conducted by over 800 banks throughout the country, in cooperation with educators, aimed at teaching the importance of thrift to boys and girls.

Often these school savings accounts are covered into regular savings when balances reach a certain total—recently, $27,386.233 in school savings were transferred to regular savings accounts in one year.

Most banks do not earn a profit on these savings but consider them an important part of their community relations, for in a few years, the youngsters who have school savings accounts will be adults and customers for regular banking services.

girls' coats have the well-bred, classic look

Classic coats and suits, softly detailed and lightly-fitted provide the new fall '64 coverage for the back-to-school crowd. Uncluttered, well-mannered and flattering to young figures, these favorites will go everywhere with best-dressed co-eds.

"This semester", says Joseph L. Dubow, executive director of the New York Coat and Suit Association, "there is an outstanding selection of back-to-school coats and suits — carefully priced within the reach of students everywhere. We have concentrated on producing handsomely tailored fashions at realistic prices."

Included are balmacaans, reefers, Chesterfields in coat fashions. Trench coats, belted and nonchalant, are making a star comeback, looking much like the trench coats Marlene Dietrich wore in the '30s.

The new classic include lines that move closer to the waistline, seam treatment, interesting pockets — "T" shaped, double-entry and patch pockets.

Collars are tailored and notched or small and snug — but they are there. Collarless "channelisms" are rarely seen for the back-to-school set.

Fur collars are sensibly detachable so that the coat becomes more wearable; the collar a welcome companion for other fashions.

Pile-lined coats — campus favorites — are styled with more detail this fall. Buttons, braid and pockets — sometimes a fur collar — perk them up so that they are fair weather as well as stormy weather friends.

Fabrics for school ages follow those used for adults, but are flatter and less textured. Meltons, chinchillas, gabardines, doeskins and less hairy tweeds are popular. Fake-fur coats continue their popularity, especially in simulations of otter and broadtail, both of which are newer than leopard. Corduroy and blends of corduroy with wool, cotton or nylon are popular because they are generally water repellent.

To make an allowance an educational device, which it should be... the child should be given a set amount regularly. They should be allowed to spend it as they wish. However, parents need to make it clear just what expenses will be up to the child.

For example, many parents do not buy ice cream or give extra money for movies, etc., but tell the child that if they want these things, they must pay for them.

Choice Of Colors Provides Clue To Personality

Don't be surprised if someone suddenly says, "Your personality is showing!"... he'll be referring to the fact that the color of your slip is a good indication of personal traits. Or so say the experts at Gossard-Artemis, who have developed a parallel between color selection and personality traits as a result of the current popularity of underlovelies in all the hues of the rainbow.

Ladies who prefer red or coral

TEN-YEAR-OLD Wayne Bernaix attending Marshall grade school, knows how to start the school year right in his "Sta-Prest" Levi's of 100% cotton which his mother never needs to iron. They come in black and beige in slims and regulars. Sizes 3-14, $4.98 at Glick's Dept. Store. Terry's sweater is 100% orlon acrylic, it comes in many colors and sizes and is only $5.98.

shades are probably fashion-conscious, open-hearted, courageous, vigorous, given to quick action and inclined to react emotionally rather than intellectually.

Misty pink signifies softness, daintiness and youthful exuberance, plus a yearning for the luxurious life. It is also a sign of consideration for others and refinement, reflecting a fragile nature.

Blue color preferences denote a basic restraint and dignity in one's personality, along with great strength of character and carefully thought-out action.

Fresh, natural personalities tend toward green, traditionally the color of nature. Green also indicates a tolerant, far-reaching interest in the world about, a respect for money and much pleasure in friends; travels and luxuries. Green-lovers also like to play bridge, shop and read best-sellers.

Gold or yellow color preferences mean that you like luxury and comfort, that you have a "sunny" nature that looks on the bright side of things, and enjoy the warmth of the family circle and close friends.

Simple Safety Rules

According to the National Safety Council, every minute or every day a motor vehicle accident results in death or injury to someone. Excessive speed is involved in one out of every three fatal automobile accidents.

First-hand experience is in itself a most potent learning technique. But experiencing a motor vehicle accident is rather an extreme way to learn the rules! No one wants to be caught "dead to rights." By observing highway safety rules, many accidents can be avoided.

"Fair play" appeals to a child. If traffic rules are explained as a natural evolution of fair play, your youngster will respect the rules more readily.

If children are taught to cross streets at the proper places and with full consideration of traffic fewer accidents would happen. Children should also be taught to face traffic and walk on the left side of road when there is no sidewalk. If a few safety rules are observed, accidents can be reduced in your community.

SECOND GRADER at Mitchell grade school, Beth Ann Heidbrink will be kept warm during the cold winter school days in her blended black and grey coat of the new look and new pile fabric called Pile-Purr. It has a new soft, rich feel and will keep any little girl warm. This lightweight coat is washable or dry cleanable. The coat has a gored back with half belt. White fur collar speckled with grey and has Coleman sleeves. The front has two pockets and black buttons. The lining is black, pile lined. Her coat comes from Leader's Children's Department.

Walt is also wearing the new amazing Sta-Prest continental slacks by Levi. Unless the youngster going to school for the first time has had nursery school training, the first day of school for a child is a most important one, and even frightening.

To make it easier for your children, try to arrange a visit to the school in advance of opening day. This will remove some of the strangeness and lost feeling of the first day.

ILLINOIS POWER CO. LIGHTING ADVISOR Miss Dorothy Davis is showing Margaret Willard the features of a new student study lamp which is one of many now on display at the Illinois Power Co. offices and show room. The lamp is being offered at a back-to-school feature price of only $9.95.

"Automated Reference" Will Be Accomplished with Computers

One of the most popular attractions at the New York World's Fair is the Library in the United States exhibit, which features a Univac 449 Real-Time computer.

Not only is the multi-million dollar machine fascinating to observe, it also provides a look into the computerized library of the future. The computer answers questions on all the exhibits in the pavilion and can print an essay of 700 words in only four seconds! It also provides annotated reading lists and bibliographies, and can retrieve information with incredible speed. All this can be accomplished at a relatively low cost once computer networks begin to be employed by libraries and educational institutions, according to UNIVAC experts.

One of the most popular attractions at the New York World's Fair is the Library in the United States exhibit, which features a Univac 449 Real-Time computer.

The UNIVAC 490 is connected to compatible equipment in Manhattan, Long Island, Denver, Phoenix, Los Angeles and San Francisco; thus the same information that is available to fairgoers is also available to people in those cities. The day may not be far off when the knowledge contained in the world's greatest libraries will be available to students thousands of miles away, through the use of computers.

Attach name tapes to every item in a child's wardrobe. For youngsters who will live away from home during the school months, be sure to mark all linen and belongings they will take along.

Jewelry Ideal Remembrances

A jewelry gift is especially welcome because it's a constant reminder of your love and affection as well as being a practical helper during his school and years afterwards.

The Jewelry Industry Council recommends these teenage favorites. A dependable watch is necessary. Another gift is a pen and pencil set. A portable typewriter to help him increase marks.

And for the very important business of being well dressed, some personal jewelry gift is a memorable gift for school folks and one that will remind them of home and your affection.

Parents Take Stand On Teens' Social Life

In self-defense and in desperation, parents are banding together to establish codes of teen behavior. These social codes are worked out under the joint auspices of the P.T.A., the Church, the "Y", and other mutually respected community services. Codes cover matters of dress, dating, drinking, driving, telephone behavior and parties. Here are a few of the recommendations:

All teenage parties should be attended by responsible adults. No party-crashing allowed. Control of numbers and selectivity is essential. If a party is crashed, don't hesitate to call the law. Young people should return home from the function direct unless otherwise specifically authorized by a parent.

Life can be easier both for parents and adolescents when they know what is expected of them. Establishing definite rules of conduct is considered a great step forward in good parent-teen relationship.

LINDA SABO enrolls in the fashions to compliment her campus life. For news in car coats she wears a crushed vinyl car coat which should never be cleaned, only needs to be sponged with warm water. Water repellent, warmly pile lined. Back belted with low belt. In her separates Libson mixes a potpourri of textures—starting with a very British wool tweed skirt in black and white—slim black—front very deep pleat causing a line look. She adds a long sleeve black turtle neck lycora sweater from Exmoor, topped by a sleeveless double breasted yellow basket-weave wool vest. The look for pure fashion impact. Featured at the Libson Shop.

FIRST HIGH SCHOOL

The first public high school established in the U. S. was founded in 1821 in Boston, Massachusetts. It was called the English Classical School; later changed to English High School.

By 1860, 300 high schools were already established in this country as part of the public school system.

Parents should be careful in encouraging their children to do well in school. The child who cannot live up to expectations may develop a feeling of inferiority, or may cheat.

Decorating A Room Creates Challenge

College affords students an opportunity to display their decorating abilities, as they go about making a home out of their room-on-campus. Because so much time will be spent in these rooms studying or relaxing, it is important that they convey a cheerful atmosphere.

Morgan-Jones has created an ensemble that accomplishes just this — colorful, coordinated bedspreads and blankets with matching towels that can be fashioned into gay cafe curtains. As practical as they are attractive, these easy-care ensembles keep housekeeping at a minimum for busy college students.

KELLY GRIMM is wearing a Jantzen V-neck cardigan sweater. Traditional clan plaid in multi-color combinations. 75% wool, 25% mohair, at $17.95. Featured at Fleishman's.

PRETTY MISS LYNETTE PETISH is ready for school or sports at University of Illinois in this two-piece suit of beige, black and red check cotton. The suit is complimented by a beige blouse. Matching slim-fims are also available. This Douglas-Marc Original can be seen in the Ladies' Department of the Leader Department Store.

New Hair-do's, Styling Tricks Beautify Back-to-Schoolers

When school bells ring for school belles, it's time for pretty new hairdo's to go with those new fall wardrobes. Here's a new hairstyling trick that will help keep setting time for those new do's to a minimum and aid sleeping comfort — our old friend Scotch tape!

Professional hairstylists approve the use of Scotch Brand Magic Mending Tape because this tape is waterproof and your hair can be set either wet or dry. It's fast-acting, too, and hair pulls off easily without sticking.

When setting your hair, just roller the top and anchor the bottom with tape. With this method, hairstyles quickly take on the new soft, smooth lines of the latest coiffures. Paul McGregor, New York hair stylist, offers the following suggestion for those with no time for an elaborate pin-curl session; comb bangs across forehead into place and tape. For the rest, make giant-size pin curls and tape them. You'll find that in just minutes your beauty job is done, and you can look forward to a smooth coil on the morrow.

Young children getting ready to start or return to school require hairdo's that are simple and easy to set, yet are becoming. Tonette, a special home permanent for children, gives the hair body and a soft, natural-looking curl; it also makes the hair easily manageable and enables it to be combed in several different styles.

His Own Desk, Own Tools Essential

Students can't do their best work if they are forced to study in the family kitchen or dining room where traffic is greatest . . . parents should see to it that the youngster has his own desk, in a quiet area away from family activity, preferably in his own room. Having the proper tools on hand will also make homework go more smoothly, too.

For greatest efficiency consultant for the Sheaffer Pen Company recommended the following equipment in every student's desk: a cartridge pen, a ball-point pen, pencil, writing pad (ruled for beginners, plain for advanced students), a bound copy book for elementary students, a loose-leaf ring binder with separators for older students, an ink eraser and art gum eraser. Also recommended for the older student are a calendar, cellophane tape and a dictionary. The younger student will particularly appreciate having art paper, scissors, crayons and colored pencils on hand.

Who Said The Wash Is A Woman's Job?

Laundry isn't strictly a woman's job. Ask the Army, Navy,

Marines. Since males take to machinery and precision products, why not to a washer and dryer? Male patronage at self-service laundries is enormous. Look around next time you visit your coin-laundry center. Take a hint, back-to-schoolers — give Mom a hand!

The youngster who leaves for school each day after having eaten a nourishing breakfast stands a better chance of becoming a good student than the one who skips or skimps on this meal.

The Library A Respected Old Friend

When the lordly senior leaves high school and begins his college year, he finds that his whole academic life has changed.

Courses have unfamiliar names, professors lecture him from their notes with a deceptively casual air, expecting him to get the information all down, digest it and "return" it at exam time. Then he discovers with a sigh of relief that the college library, except for being larger, possibly with a larger staff, has changed little. It is still "old reliable."

The library's main service to the high school is of course supplying reference books to supplement course lectures, to provide background materials, and for sheer enjoyment; to search for things that count — and help the student keep his marks high.

It is also a retreat where one can read or just rest or perhaps chat quietly with his fellows. In thus enriching his life, the library sustains and nourishes the student in his quest for education and in savoring the experiences of life.

Take Time To Take Cover

Bye bye bikini! — it's time to wrap up the summer and start thinking of the cool weather, of school, and the clothes and cosmetics promise a beautiful winter.

Your tan is probably fading. If you have been covering a serious skin blemish with Covermark, it's time to switch to a new, lighter shade. Summer or winter, you can find the shade that's right for your skin — there are seven to choose from. And remember, it's waterproof. Cover mark stayed on for water skiing . . . will last through snowball fights!

And while we're on the subject of snow, ski wear will play a big part in your back-to-school wardrobe. Stretch pants in dozens of shades, soft warm sweaters, waterproof parkas — all will be as popular in the classroom as on the ski slopes.

Drab November days will be brightened by dazzling raincoats. Shiny red and yellow slickers, which would surprise the Gloucester fishermen, who stick to traditional black . . . Sherlock Holmes houndstooth with cap and boots to match . . . stripes, checks, plaids and solids. Bring on the rain!

Coats will stay slim and neat. For the daring, a hot fashion for cold weather will be genuine kangaroo coats, in the "shock" colors — red, blue, yellow.

AN IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

To The Parents of College Students

The costs of a college education are steadily increasing. For many families it is difficult to lay aside enough money, in advance, to handle these costs. To meet the problem, Granite City Trust has initiated a unique, new plan. The College Education Financing Plan lets you pay for education out of regular income in convenient monthly installments over a 6-year period.

COLLEGE EDUCATION FINANCING PLAN

HERE'S THE WAY THE PLAN WORKS:

- 1.) You select the particular school or college for your child and determine how much you will need (up to $10,000) to pay all the expenses. Use the handy table below.
- 2.) As soon as your application is approved, we will advance the first semester expenses to you. Remainder of the loan will be paid to you in 7 additional payments beginning at the start of each succeeding semester.
- 3.) Budgeted monthly payments will start one month after the date of the loan, continuing up to six years for a 4-year course.

COVERS ALL EDUCATIONAL EXPENSES. You may finance one, two, three or four years of education. Funds are advanced at the beginning of each semester. Up to $10,000 is available; however, you may borrow as much or as little as you need.

SPREADS THE COST EVENLY. No need to face a large cash outlay at the beginning of each school semester. Instead, you can repay in sensible monthly installments, taking up to 72 months to repay. All interest you pay is tax-deductible, and the rates are about 1/2 of a normal installment loan.

COMPLETE INSURANCE Coverage Included. Should the borrower (parent or sponsor) die, all payments due to the bank are automatically cancelled; and the student continues to receive all the money he needs to complete his college education. Should the student die, any balance owed by the family is cancelled. No medical examination is required for this insurance.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE? If you are a parent, relative, guardian or sponsor, Granite City Trust will welcome your application. So, come in and talk over your youngster's tuition needs now. There is no obligation!

Scents-able Grooming Guide For Guys

With the new school year, besides paying extra attention to your new school wardrobe, you should pay attention to good grooming, too.

The makers of Kings Men toiletries have come up with a checklist to help you in selecting your toiletry accessories for the campus life you are going to lead, and for making the most of your social contacts:

DEODORANTS . . . Most recommended is the stick or spray-on type rather than the roll-on. Effective deodorants prevent body odor by reducing skin bacteria and not masking them with an overpowering scent. A deodorant should be used daily or oftener, depending on your activities and your special body "quirks."

AFTER - SHAVE LOTIONS

... Their purpose is to soothe skin and stimulate circulation with astringent action, help heal razor burns and nicks, and to impart antiseptic cleanliness. Also, it is said that gals like its racy aroma!

PRE - ELECTRIC LOTIONS

... must be used prior to electric shaving. It will condition skin whiskers for easier, closer shaving and lubricate the process, with less skin-irritation.

TALC . . . Talc will remove undesirable, un-masculine shine; also it helps to mask dark and heavy beard shadows.

COLOGNES . . . Don't confuse with after-shave. Colognes contain less alcohol. Great for after shower or as a skin conditioner.

Get the good-grooming habit. You will like the results . . . Not the least important, the confidence it gives you. Get the look of success!

HELP YOUR CHILD DEVELOP MUSICALLY

As a parent trying your best to develop your teen-agers into mature adults, you may sometimes feel that their choice of music strains nerve-ends to the breaking point. A wise solution for a happier atmosphere is to permit teen-agers to have their own record player or stereo in their room. This allows them to develop their own musical tastes without involving other members of the family.

Helping them to refine their standards with albums representing all types of good music from classical compositions to fine contemporary works will enable them to enjoy a rich spectrum of musical offerings. Educational records can also help them broaden their understanding of foreign languages and the spoken arts.

One of the fine new portable stereos for the teen-age market is the Phonola which sells for less than $60.

Crafts Projects Help Keep Young Children Happy

It's easy to keep youngsters both quiet and busy, when you provide them with a project that is fun and within their abilities! Such a project is the "Cat O' Nine Tales" designed by stylists for Tie-Tie. It's perfect for entertaining children in nursery groups, on rainy afternoons or at den-meetings.

A simple household container plus gift wrapping paper and ribbon are all the equipment you need to create a glamorous "kitty" that can be used as a bank, a container for hair rollers, cotton puffs, gloves, pencils, candy, letters and bills or any number of functions.

To fashion this versatile little kitty, take a tall cardboard container, such as those used for oatmeal or cornmeal, plus dotted wrapping paper with matching solid color ribbon. Cover the lid and base of the container separately with paper, securing with cellophane tape. If the kitty is to be used as a bank, make a small slit near the top. To make the head, either use a ready-made pom-pom (recommended for very young children) or fashion one yourself . . . then give your bow a tufted or quilted effect by tying narrow strips of matched ribbon around each loop in the bow.

Fashion ears with semi-circles of Satintone ribbon, by moistening and pressing edges of ribbon

How To Choose An Encyclopedia

With the numerous encyclopedias on the market, which one do you buy? The solution, says Dr. Lowell A. Martin, Editorial Director of Grolier Incorporated, the largest encyclopedia publisher, is "to choose for the particular student's educational situation involved". Grolier publishes Encyclopedia International and the Book of Knowledge, among others.

Dr. Martin points out that no individual set is right for everyone. Therefore you should choose according to age level. Reference sets cover primary to college grades. Check on up-to-dateness. Besides offering complete data, the reference work should also, stimulate the intellectual curiosity of the student. It should also encourage him to further research on his own.

together. Kitty's whiskers should be narrow strips of contrasting ribbon, pulled through one of the loops of the pom-pom bow and fastened in place. Button eyes can be attached to head with all-purpose glue.

To fasten kitty's head to its "body", flatten one side of the bow slightly. Place these surfaces on glue spread on lid, hold in place a few minutes. Finish up your pet project with a bow under kitty's chin, fringed eyelashes cut from ribbon and a ribbon chain attached to kitty's neck.
